The Perfect Oops

Henry has a big dream: to be a great artist. But will his clumsiness get in the way? Everything Henry makes turns out broken or bungled. That doesn't seem like art at all! After talking to his grandfather, Henry learns how to find beauty in imperfection, and realizes that sometimes the best art is the art of being yourself. This book teaches readers how to recognize and accept their strengths and limitations, as well as increase their self-confidence, through an uplifting and relatable story.

El mejor regalo (The Best Gift)

Maria treasures the beautiful things her grandmother knits her. She loves visiting her grandmother, whose house is bursting with yarn in all colors. To Maria, her grandmother possesses a nearly magical ability to create flowers, bicycles, and treehouses with her knitting needles. Then, Maria's grandmother passes away, leaving her only with a brilliant, white woven star to guide her. But where can Maria put the star so her grandma can see it? This poignant picture book explores love and loss through an unforgettable narrative and colorful, textured illustrations.

The (Ferocious) Chocolate Wolf

Things are not always as they seem. When Ferocious, the not-so-ferocious wolf, decides to open a chocolate shop, all the other animals in town are afraid. However, a pig decides to trust the wolf and help with the chocolate endeavor. While the other animals think the pig has made a deadly decision, he's really started a sweet new friendship. The other animals' eyes are opened to the possibility of accepting Ferocious into the fold and looking past his differences to the generous baker behind the big teeth. This picture book combines heartfelt storytelling with bright illustrations to teach an important lesson about empathy, inclusion, and friendship.

Who Is at the Zoo?

When zoo animals take over her town, the narrator has one big question: Who is at the zoo? She finds a leopard watching her television, a bear doing laundry, and a zebra cooking breakfast. Outside, she finds that the crossing guard is a giant tortoise and her teacher is a python! What's going on? In a hilarious twist, the narrator realizes all the grown-ups are at the zoo. Engaging rhyme and silly illustrations will delight readers as they learn to ask questions and find the answers.

Will the Word Eater

Will has a lot to say, but he knows from experience that it's not always safe to say what's on his mind. At home and at school, with his father and his friends, Will has been gulping down his words for a long time. He doesn't know how many more words he'll be able to swallow. Then he meets a writer who won't take back his words, and Will understands what being brave can mean. As Will's words begin to flow, he tastes for the first time what self-expression without fear can be.

Caged

Caged is a wordless and witty tale of freedom, ingenuity, and thwarted ambition. While a bluebird builds her nest in the forest, two eccentric gentlemen have a more ambitious construction in mind: a vast palatial building made from birdcages filled with colorful parrots. As the trees come down and the structure goes up, the bluebird watches the spectacle. More and more caged birds are consigned to their fate until at last a huge dome completes the work. However, when the celebrating architects go in to admire their creation, the little bluebird brings their ambitions crashing down around them.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR:

JANE CLARKE is the author of more than 45 children's books. With a doctorate in archaeology, she has lived all over the world, including the United States and Mexico. Jane began to write while working as a part-time librarian in Belgium. Now living in England, she frequently visits schools to inspire children to read and write.

LORETTA SCHAUER originally trained as a dancer. A self-taught artist, Loretta won an illustration contest in 2011 and has since illustrated numerous picture books and fiction titles. She lives in North London at the top of a tall gray building with her husband and pet hamster. One day she hopes to live beside the seaside with a garden full of chickens and guinea pigs.
